

Preis Re-elected to Presidency Of Muscular Dystrophy Chapter

Re-election of John J. Preis, manager of May Co. South Bay as president of the L. A. County chapter of Muscular Dystrophy Assn. of America, Inc. was announced yesterday. Preis served as chapter president last year and as County campaign chairman for the two preceding years.

In assuming his duties for the new year, Preis hailed the strides made by MDAA in the past 10 years in the fight to conquer MD.

"IN ITS 10-YEAR history, the Association has grown from a single chapter to a total of 366. There are now 55 MD clinics serving the needs of MD patients and $7,203,708 has been expended for medical research in more than 100 research projects; $6,151,978 for patient services and $4,549,339 for the new MDAA research center, The Institute for Muscle Disease. These are tremendous gains when we consider that decade ago, little or nothing was known about MD—research was practically non-existent, and there were no services to patients and their families."

TELLING OF the local MDAA program, Preis said: "1959 was a year of great accomplishment. More money was raised ($265,000) to provide increased services to MD patients and their families, summer day camps and recreational activities for MD children, and to aid local research investigation. Six local research projects at UCLA and USC, supported by MDAA funds totaling nearly $88,000, will help speed the discovery of a cure and treatment for the dread disease that now afflicts a quarter million victims.

"The L. A. Chapter allocated $25,000 of its own funds to support local research and this year has set aside $10,000 toward support of the Institute for Muscle Disease."

Other officers elected for the new chapter year include John Flanigan, first vice president; Dave Akin, treasurer; Mrs. Russell P. Savery, secretary, and vice presidents serving on committee, Catherine Wright, Mrs. Rosalind K. Shaffer, Richard O. Gleason, Rudy Pacht, and Dr. David Rubin.

Torrance Hospital Doctors Plan Annual Golf Tourney

Doctors of Torrance Memorial Hospital staff will open their Third Annual Staff Day Outing at Palos Verdes Country Club June 1 with a golf tournament in the afternoon, according to Dr. Gerald M. Eastham, chairman of the arrangements committee.

Reservations have been made for more than 100 doctors and guests. A cocktail hour will follow the golf tournament. Trophies and prizes will be awarded at a steak dinner that night.

"OUR ANNUAL Staff Day Outings have been very successful in the past, and we are looking forward to another enjoyable day at Palos Verdes Country Club," said Doctor Eastham.

Dr. William C. Casey won the golf tournament last year and Dr. Clifford E. Easley was the winner in 1958.

THERE WILL BE entertainment during the cocktail hour and dinner. Among the guests will be members of the Torrance Memorial Hospital Board of Directors. Dr. George O. Peeke, chief of staff, will welcome the group.

Committee members for the affair again include Dr. John F. Nursall, Dr. Rodney A. Stetson, Doctor Easley, and Doctor Casey.

CHECKING DISPLAY . . . Tony Perez, district supervisor for the big new Magic Chef Market soon to open at Hawthorne and Sepulveda in the Del Amo Shopping Center, checks a display in the market's huge Variety Department. Receiving a supermarket of this size for opening is a tremendous undertaking, but Tony takes it with a smile.

Largest Variety Department in Souhland Said by Magic Chef

One of the biggest attractions in the huge new Magic Chef Market, soon to open at Hawthorne and Sepulveda in the Del Amo Shopping Center, is the largest variety department to be found in any super market in the Southland.

And variety is the word. Planned to bring one-stop shopping a giant step closer to reality, it makes "everything but the kitchen sink" an understatement—the huge, well-stocked plastics section alone contains several handy substitutes for a kitchen sink; colanders, dish pans, buckets, and so on and on. In fact, a complete kitchen could easily be equipped from Magic Chef's wares: cooking implements, pots and pans, cutlery, china, cleaning tools—and all at a price to suit a bride's or a working girl's pocketbook.

BUT KITCHEN equipment is only the beginning of what the big Magic Chef variety department offers. Need a summer blanket? Here they are, dreamy soft and downy, in heavenly colors. Accent pillows to give the living room a summer lift? Magic Chef has 'em in the newest colors and textures.

A new playset for your little girl? Magic Chef has a delightful—and exclusive—line of girls' playclothes, and the young men of the family can be fitted out, too. Luggage, barbecue sets, garden tools, table lamps, record albums at tremendous bargains? Magic Chef has them, in dizzying variety, plus health and beauty aids, household tools of all descriptions, a complete party section.

IN PLANNING this extraordinary department, Magic Chef has kept three requirements in mind: convenience, quality, and economy. Convenience means that the thousand little emergencies that occur in every household can be satisfied on the weekly trip to the market (or, if Junior made a perforated igloo out of her best ring mold, Mother can pick up a new one with no trouble).

Quality and economy go together. Magic Chef's buyers go to endless pains to find merchandise not only priced to suit the family budget, but made to function properly and durably and—not least—to please the eye.
